QUIZ TIME!

Time to say sorry

God our Father, we come to you in sorrow for our sins.
For turning away from you and ignoring your will for our lives;

Father, forgive us:

Save us and help us.

For behaving just as we wish, without thinking of you;

Father, forgive us:

Save us and help us.

For failing you by what we do and think and say;

Father, forgive us:

Save us and help us.

For letting ourselves be drawn away from you
by temptations in the world about us;

Father, forgive us:

Save us and help us.

For living as if we were ashamed to belong to your Son;

Father, forgive us:

Save us and help us.

Everyone needs compassion,
Love that's never failing,
Let mercy fall on me.
Everyone needs forgiveness,
The kindness of a Saviour,
The hope of nations.

Saviour, He can move the mountains.

My God is mighty to save,

He is mighty to save.

Forever, Author of salvation.

He rose and conquered the grave,

Jesus conquered the grave.

So take me as You find me,
All my fears and failures,
Fill my life again.
I give my life to follow
Everything I believe in,
Now I surrender.

Saviour, He can move the mountains.

My God is mighty to save,

He is mighty to save.

Forever, Author of salvation.

He rose and conquered the grave,

Jesus conquered the grave.

Shine Your light, and let the whole world see, we're singing
For the glory of the risen King.

Reading and Talk – Exodus 2:1-10

<sup>1</sup>There was a man from the family of Levi. He married a woman who was also from the family of Levi. <sup>2</sup>She became pregnant and gave birth to a son. She saw how wonderful the baby was, and she hid him for three months. <sup>3</sup>But after three months, she was not able to hide the baby any longer. So she got a basket made of reeds and covered it with tar so that it would float. She put the baby in the basket. Then she put the basket among the tall grass at the edge of the Nile River. <sup>4</sup>The baby's sister stood a short distance away. She wanted to see what would happen to him.

<sup>5</sup> Then the daughter of the king of Egypt came to the river. She was going to take a bath. Her servant girls were walking beside the river. She saw the basket in the tall grass. So she sent her slave girl to get it. <sup>6</sup> The king's daughter opened the basket and saw the baby boy. He was crying, and she felt sorry for him. She said, "This is one of the Hebrew babies."

<sup>7</sup> Then the baby's sister asked the king's daughter, "Would you like me to find a Hebrew woman to nurse the baby for you?"

<sup>8</sup> The king's daughter said, "Yes, please." So the girl went and got the baby's own mother.

<sup>9</sup>The king's daughter said to the woman, "Take this baby and nurse him for me. I will pay you." So the woman took her baby and nursed him. <sup>10</sup>After the child had grown older, the woman took him to the king's daughter. She adopted the baby as her own son. The king's daughter named him Moses, because she had pulled him out of the water.

This is the Word of the Lord

Thanks be to God

Faithful one, so unchanging.
Ageless one, You're my rock of peace.
Lord of all, I depend on You.
I call out to You, again and again
I call out to You, again and again.

You are my rock in times of trouble.
You lift me up when I fall down.
All through the storm,
Your love is the anchor,
My hope is in You alone.

An open book with a dark cover is lying on a weathered wooden log. The pages are filled with text, and the book is slightly open. Overlaid on the image is a large, white, cursive word 'Believe' that spans across the book and the background. To the right of the 'Believe' text, the words 'THIS WE' are written in a bold, white, sans-serif font inside a dark green rectangular box. The background is a blurred natural setting with green foliage and brown wood.
